

Noticias y medios de comunicación en inglés

Nivel: B1

Aprende 30 palabras para hablar de las noticias, la tele y internet. Lee cada palabra y su ejemplo, y después haz los ejercicios. Estas palabras te ayudan a decir lo que lees, ves y oyes, y a contar a otras personas lo que dijo un periodista o un informe.

Noticias y reportajes

headline	titular	I only read the headline , so I didn't know the whole story.
article	artículo	She wrote an article about life in a small village.
newspaper	periódico, diario	My grandfather has read the newspaper every morning for forty years.
magazine	revista	I bought a magazine because it had an interview with my favourite singer.
journalist	periodista	The journalist asked the mayor three difficult questions.
reporter	reportero, reportera	A reporter was standing outside the hospital when the news came.
report	informe, reportaje	The report says that more people are working from home.
story	noticia, historia	The story was on the front page of every paper yesterday.
breaking news	noticia de última hora	We were having dinner when the breaking news started on TV.
source	fuelle	The journalist said that her source was a person who works at the airport.
rumour	rumor	There is a rumour that the shop is going to close.

Televisión, radio e internet

broadcast	emisión, programa emitido	The match was a live broadcast , so millions of people watched it.
channel	canal	If I had more time, I would watch that channel every day.
programme	programa	He told me that his favourite programme starts at nine.
documentary	documental	I've just watched a documentary about the oceans.
presenter	presentador, presentadora	The presenter was so funny that everybody laughed.
interview	entrevista	The actor said in an interview that he was learning Italian.
advert	anuncio (publicidad)	I saw an advert for a new phone on the bus.
audience	audiencia, público	The audience laughed when the singer came on stage.
viewer	espectador, telespectador	Every viewer can vote for their favourite singer.
website	sitio web, página web	She said that the news website had changed its design.

Hablar de los medios

the media	los medios de comunicación	The media talked about the story for days.
social media	redes sociales	Many people get their news from social media .
fake news	noticias falsas	He told me not to share fake news online.
review	reseña, crítica	I read a good review , so I bought the book.
opinion	opinión	In my opinion , the news is too negative.
publish	publicar	The newspaper will publish the photos tomorrow.
announce	anunciar	The company is going to announce its new phone next week.
reliable	fiable, de confianza	This website isn't very reliable ; it often gets the facts wrong.
subscribe	suscribirse	If I had more money, I would subscribe to a sports channel.

Ejercicio 1: Une palabras y significados

Une cada palabra con su significado.

1. headline → _____
2. journalist → _____
3. source → _____
4. rumour → _____
5. broadcast → _____
6. audience → _____
7. review → _____
8. reliable → _____

el título de una noticia en quien se puede confiar; puedes creerlo las personas que miran o escuchan un programa que se emite por televisión o radio, a menudo en directo un texto que da una opinión sobre una película, un libro o un espectáculo una historia que mucha gente cuenta pero que puede no ser verdad una persona o un lugar que da información una persona que escribe noticias

Ejercicio 2: Elige la palabra correcta

Elige la palabra o la expresión correcta para cada oración.

9. In a newspaper, the big title of a story is the ____.
a) headline b) audience c) advert
10. She works for a TV channel and tells the news from the place where it happens. She is a ____.
a) viewer b) review c) reporter

11. He said that he had heard a ___ about the school closing, but he didn't know if it was true.
a) documentary b) rumour c) magazine
12. Be careful: a lot of people share ___ on social media.
a) fake news b) a presenter c) an audience
13. I read a ___ of the film before I went to see it.
a) source b) broadcast c) review
14. The reporter ___ us that the match had started.
a) said b) told c) talked
15. If I ___ a journalist, I would write about the environment.
a) am b) were c) will be

Ejercicio 3: Completa el hueco

Escribe la palabra que falta.

16. The ___ laughed at every joke the presenter made. (las personas que miran)
17. I saw an ___ for trainers on TV. It made me want to buy them. (un vídeo corto que vende algo)
18. I haven't read the whole article. I only read the ___. (las palabras grandes al principio de una noticia)
19. He told me that his ___ was a woman who works at the town hall. (da información)
20. Last night I watched a ___ about the oceans. It had true facts and no actors. (una película con hechos reales)
21. The journalist said that he would ___ the story on Friday. (ponerlo en el periódico)
22. If I had more free time, I would ___ to a sports channel. (pagar para recibirlo)

Soluciones

Ejercicio 1: Une palabras y significados

1. headline → el título de una noticia
2. journalist → una persona que escribe noticias
3. source → una persona o un lugar que da información
4. rumour → una historia que mucha gente cuenta pero que puede no ser verdad
5. broadcast → un programa que se emite por televisión o radio, a menudo en directo
6. audience → las personas que miran o escuchan
7. review → un texto que da una opinión sobre una película, un libro o un espectáculo
8. reliable → en quien se puede confiar; puedes creerlo

Ejercicio 2: Elige la palabra correcta

9. a) headline
10. c) reporter
11. b) rumour
12. a) fake news
13. c) review
14. b) told
15. b) were

Ejercicio 3: Completa el hueco

16. audience
17. advert / advertisement / ad / commercial
18. headline / headlines
19. source
20. documentary
21. publish / print
22. subscribe