

Object Pronouns Exercises

Level: A1

Object Pronouns: me, you, him, her, it, us, them

A subject pronoun comes before the verb: She likes Tom. An object pronoun comes after the verb, or after a word like for, with or to: Tom likes her.

Subject and object: I → me, you → you, he → him, she → her, it → it, we → us, they → them.

After a verb: The object pronoun goes after the verb: I love it. She helps us. We know them.

After for, with, to: We use object pronouns after these words too: This is for her. Tom lives with them. She writes to me.

Word order: The pronoun never goes before the verb. Say I love it, not I it love.

You and it: You and it are the same as subject and object: You know me. I know you. It is my phone. I need it.
