

Passado de make em inglês: made

O verbo make é irregular. Seu passado e seu particípio são made. Não acrescente -ed a make.

Base	make
Past	made
Past participle	made
3rd person / -ing	makes / making

Examples

I make coffee every morning. — Para um hábito, use a forma básica make.

We make a big salad for lunch. — Make pode ser usado para preparar comida.

She made a cake for my birthday. — Made é passado simples e dispensa auxiliar.

He made a mistake in the test. — Make a mistake é uma expressão fixa.

I have made a new friend. — Depois de have, use o particípio made.

They have made a lot of noise. — Have made está no presente perfeito.

Notes

Make ou do? Use make para criar ou produzir algo: make a cake, make a plan, make a mistake. Use do para tarefas e atividades: do homework, do the dishes.

Expressões comuns com make Aprenda estas combinações: make friends, make a decision, make a phone call, make money e make a noise.

Common mistakes

I maked a cake. → I made a cake. — O passado é made, nunca maked.

She makes her homework every day. → She does her homework every day. — Para a tarefa homework, use do, não make.

He has make dinner. → He has made dinner. — Depois de has ou have, use o particípio made.

Exercises

Escolha a forma correta

1. These days my dad ___ eggs on Sundays. (make / makes / made)
2. She ___ a mistake yesterday. (make / made / makes)
3. We have ___ a plan for the weekend. (made / make / maked)
4. Please ___ your bed before school. (made / make / makes)

Escreva a forma que falta

1. I ___ lunch for the kids yesterday.
2. He has ___ a big decision.
3. They ___ chairs in that factory now.

Corrija o erro

1. They maked a lot of noise last night.

Answer key

Escolha a forma correta

1. makes — Em uma rotina com dad, use makes.
2. made — Yesterday indica passado; use made.
3. made — Depois de have, use made.
4. make — Em uma instrução educada, use a forma básica make.

Escreva a forma que falta

1. made — Yesterday pede o passado made.
2. made — O auxiliar has seguido do particípio forma has made.
3. make — Com they no presente, use make.

Corrija o erro

1. made — O passado é made, não maked.

<https://www.fluencyroad.com/pt-br/verbos-irregulares/make>